

January 15, 2008

Sean Mulholland
Stetson School of Business & Economics
Mercer University
1400 Coleman Avenue
Macon, GA 31207

Dear Sean:

I am pleased to enclose your signed Certificate of Achievement from the Committee on Economic Education (CEE) of the American Economic Association. This certificate is being awarded to you for successful completion of two instructional modules through the Teaching Innovations Program (TIP), a CEE-sponsored project that is funded by a grant from the National Science Foundation. On behalf of the TIP staff, I offer congratulations to you for this achievement.

Sincerely,

William Walstad
Principal Investigator of the Teaching Innovations Program (TIP)
and Professor of Economics

*The Committee on Economic Education
Of the American Economic Association*

Presents to

Sean Mulholland

The Teaching Innovations Program Certificate of Achievement

for successful implementation of interactive teaching strategies in a program peer reviewed and supported by the National Science Foundation.

January 5, 2008

William Walstad

Michael Salemi

National Science Foundation
WHERE DISCOVERIES BEGIN

Michael Watts, CEE Chair

William Walstad, TIP PI

Michael Salemi, TIP CO-PI